

Gerry McColgan

Gerry is a BSc Honours Economics Graduate from the University of Ulster, he has over 30 years Industrial experience at senior management level together with management consultancy positions.

Gerry has lectured for a number of third level colleges in Business Management, Supply Chain, Retail Management and organisational change management.

Paul Doherty

Paul has a BA (Hons) Banking and Finance from the University of Ulster and is also a Fellow of the ACCA accounting body. Paul also holds a Post-Graduate Diploma in Business and Information Systems - University of Ulster

Paul has extensive lecturing experience in the Financial Services sector and Business Finance with many third level institutions to both undergraduate and post graduate students.

Kevin Burrows.

Kevin is a Construction Studies graduate who successfully managed his own business for over twenty five years. He has extensive supply chain and logistics management experience together with a proven track record in training delivery.

Kevin has delivered many training modules for various Education Training Boards nationwide ranging from Retail Sales, Warehousing & Inventory Management, Supervisory Skills, Teamworking & Communications Skills.

Kevin also holds a UEFA B coaching licence and is active in the sports environment.

Martin O' Brien

Martin is a Bachelor of Business Studies Degree graduate from the University of Limerick. Martin has held a number of senior positions in business and finance with a range of companies over the last 25 years.

Martin has lectured for the College in Business and Accountancy over the last three years with a very successful track record for QQI courses.